EAGLE Certification Group, an accredited third-party certification body for GFSI and ISO standards, is sponsoring:

Implementing SQF Systems

Date & Time: October 23-24, 2019 — Daily 8AM-5PM EST

Description: The class is based on Edition 8.1 of the SQF Code, with emphasis on its new requirements. The instructor will tailor the class to the participants' specific questions and their food industry sectors.

Provided by an SQF licensed trainer, the class will help to prepare you to meet the SQF Practitioner requirements as defined in the SQF Code. It applies to all sectors of the food industry including primary production through distribution. The class ends with a practice exam to ensure you are prepared for the online exam. You will also receive a certificate of completion for the course.

Cost: The class is $645.00 USD per person and includes all training materials and lunch each day. If three or more persons register for the same class at the same time there is a 10% discount.

Course Location:

Hilton Cincinnati Airport
7373 Turfway Road
Florence, KY 41042

A negotiated rate $135/night which includes a full breakfast, complimentary parking and free high speed internet access is available until September 22, 2019. Please click here to make your reservation. Class participants are responsible for payment of their hotel room. The hotel is located 6 miles from the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport and provides a free 24/7 shuttle service.

Training Provided by Kelly Vest DVM, DrPH

Kelly is Vice President at HACCP Consulting Group and holds Adjunct Assistant Professor appointments at Oklahoma State University and the Uniformed Services University. His experience of over 30 years in food safety, food defense, infectious disease epidemiology and surveillance includes a 20-year military career dedicated in protecting the military. Consulting, auditing, and training includes dairy, confectionary, bakery, packaging, and many others.
